Awards / Accomplishments / Promotions / Appointments September 2015 Employee of the Month Officer Ryan Witt

Officer Witt joined the department on September 20, 2004. He is currently a Street Crimes Officer working the night shift. In addition to his normal duties, Officer Witt is a recruiting officer, field training officer, less lethal munitions instructor, a member of the ILEAS Region 6 Mobile Field Force Team, and a Crisis Intervention Team officer. During his tenure with the department, Officer Witt has been selected as Employee of the Month on four occasions. He earned recognitions as Patrol Officer of the Year in both 2010 and 2011.

Officer Witt was nominated for this award for his work facilitating the arrest of an armed and dangerous individual. As a normal course, he maintains a good working relationship with the Street Crime Unit at Hannibal PD. When Officer Witt learned the suspect of the August 25, 2015 shooting was a well known resident of Hannibal, he immediately called the HPD SCU officers and asked them if they had any information about the subject that would be helpful. Those officers knew right away of a Confidential Source (CS) that could help. Arrangements were made to have this CS brought to Quincy where they provided information that led to an expedient arrest.

Officer Witt, like all good police officers, knows that police work is not done in a vacuum. The criminals that officers deal with on the streets who commit crimes such as this shooting operate in various jurisdictions. In addition to everything else that Officer Witt brings to the table, his continued working relationships with other agencies proved very valuable in this case.

Information submitted by Lt. Dan DuHamel

Dayshift Squad 2:

On 09-21-15, the Quincy Police Department received information from the Davenport (IA) Police Department regarding two violent juvenile males who were wanted by Davenport Police Department robbery and weapon offenses. After receiving the information from Davenport, Officer Russell spotted one of the suspects, Demetrius J. Allen, on the north end of town, but was unable to apprehend him at the time due to a communication issue with dispatch. Officer Russell then looked up both Demetrius Allen and his cohort, Jason Ruplinger, on Facebook and found pictures of both subjects at a house in Quincy. Officer Russell then began developing a strategy to locate the suspects on 09-22-15. Officer Russell then contacted Detective Gibson, who was working the Proactive detail on the northwest end of town, and briefed Detective Gibson on the Davenport fugitives.

Detective Gibson was then able to locate the suspects at 6th and Cherry, and he and Officer Russell then got out with the suspects in the 500 block of Cherry Street. Additional officers responded to the area, as these suspects had been reported as armed and dangerous. Officer Russell and Detective Gibson were able to identify Allen and Ruplinger, who were each wanted on warrants for Robbery and Intimidation with a Dangerous Weapon. During the encounter with Allen and Ruplinger, one of Allen and Ruplinger's friends then dropped a baggie containing a white chunky substance onto the street. That subject was identified as Kendrick E. Lee (06-23-00), who was also from Davenport, IA. The substance in the baggie turned out to be 4.7 grams of crack cocaine packaged for sale. All three subjects (Allen, Ruplinger, and Lee) were taken into custody and a set of car keys was located on one of the suspects. Officers then checked the area using the key fob remote and found that the key fob belonged to a 2013 Ford registered to an address in Bettendorf, IA that was parked at 6th and Lind. The 2013 Ford had been reported as stolen on 09-21-15 during a crime spree where numerous vehicles had been stolen. Allen, Ruplinger, and their crew have been implicated in the crime wave in both the Davenport and Bettendorf Iowa areas. Allen, Ruplinger, and Lee were all lodged in the Adams County Juvenile Detention Center.
